Statistics that show the Size and Scope of the 9/11 Health Crisis facing 9/11 Responders, Survivors and their Families

Below is information on the size and extent of the Health Crisis facing injured and ill 9/11 Responders and Survivors, including residents, student, area workers.

- There are over 77,000 Responders and Survivors who are living in every State and from 433 of 435 Congressional Districts.
- There are over 10,000 participating in the National Program which provides medical treatment and monitoring for 9/11 Responders who live outside the New York Metropolitan Area, including responders to the Pentagon and the Shanksville crash site.
- There are over 66,000 9/11 Responders receiving medical monitoring to safeguard against emerging injuries.
- There are 10,615 injured 9/11 Survivors receiving medical treatment for their injuries from the World Trade Center Health Program.
- There are 38,711 Responders and Survivors have at least one 9/11 condition and over two thirds have more than one condition and a large number of those suffer from multiple injuries and illnesses.
- 25,018 9/11 Responders and Survivors sought treatment last year, for their 9/11 injury from the World Trade Center Health Program.
- Over 2,000 active duty Fire Department personnel (Fire Fighters and EMS) and over 550 NYC Police Department personal have had to retire due to disabling 9/11 injuries.
- Almost 6,000 Responders and Survivors have been certified to have a 9/11 related cancer, of which over 1,100 are New York City Fire Fighters and EMS personnel.
- Over 163 New York Police Department officers and over 158 FDNY Firefighters have reportedly died of their 9/11 injuries since 9/11 and more are expected in the coming years..
- To date, the September 11 Victim Compensation Fund has received 28,609 eligibility claims.
- The VCF since being reopened has made over 13,000 compensation determinations for injured and ill responders and survivors or their families totaling over $2.7 Billion.

Additional information and statistics are available on the Renew911Health website here: http://www.renew911health.org/statistics-that-show-the-size-and-scope-of-the-911health-crisis-facing-911-responders-survivors-and-their-families/